OUR PARIS LETTER.

Pierre Napoleon—Opinion in France Concerning his Acquittal—Interesting Comments and Incidents—The Prince of the Blood—The Political Horizon, Etc., Etc.

Special Foreign Cor. of The Constitution.]

PARIS, April 2, 1870.

A few days more, and Pierre Napoleon will be as forgotten as that other mad-cap, Henri de Bourbon, unless, and which is quite on the cards, the Prince again fills the public eye. An Italian will go once around the world to serve a friend, and three times to be revenged. L'acquitte du 27 Mars has some accounts to settle with the witnesses, as crazy as himself, but who, with a predetermined sang froid, spat insults in his face, in the dock. For example: Grousset, who described his mother as the most accommodating of courtesans; Fonville, who called him a cowardly murderer; Rochfort, whose imprisonment alone prevents a meeting, and Arago, who described the accused as a frightful blackguard. Nor are the "Reds," or as they are now called more appropriately, the "Implacables," desirous of avoiding the Bonaparte—a name unmusical to the Volscians' ears. They have chalked his coat, and will dog him like children of the mist. They will have an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a life for a life.

Never would man leave his country for his country's good, more than P. Napoleon. Whether he will take to the road, voluntarily, or whether the Emperor, as head of the family, will command him to try change of air, out of France he ought to go. Up to the present he leads his usual lotus-eating-life, at the house of the crime, which is protected inside and outside by police. He receives the felicitations of his friends, and the officers of the army flock to congratulate him, whom they hold, as a living example, that the age of chivalry is not yet gone. The Prince has some house-property in the Avenue Louise, Brussels; but this would be a dangerous city for him to seek retirement, swarming as it does, with French refugees. That he is in no hurry to move on, and so gratify his opponents, is shown by the fact, that his country seat, at Ardennes, has been fired, and he declined to repair to investigate the matter.

And the verdict. The "Implacables," who would have Pierre Napoleon broken on the wheel, and the "Corsicans" who would propose him for canonization, only His Holliness is so occupied in the Syllabus and Infallibility, must be left out of the question. Public opinion is divided about the acquittal, but the great body of it is surprised at his getting off scot free, for the civil damages and costs are nothing. Even this "surprise" springs not from belief in the unjustifiableness of the homicide, but that any man, who admits having slain another, could escape the rigors of the Code without a slight punishment. Of the 36 "gentlemen of the jury," 18 were for conviction, and 18 for acquital and the accused got the benefit of the "tie." The verdict may be attributed to the disgust felt at the violence of the Noir party, also by the Marseillaise, who profess to represent French Republicanism. They belong to those who disgrace Republicanism; who have strangled those Republics which France possessed, and are still ready to administer liberty, equality, and fraternity, by intolerance, proscription and the guillotine.

There was no positive evidence to be relied on in determining the one positive fact—did Noir, before he was shot, strike Napoleon? Fonville, who alone witnessed the deed, asserts his companion did not. But Fonville swore on Noir's grave to be revenged. He gave himself up to a party, and in yelling in the court—for which he is now undergoing a sentence of ten days imprisonment—that the prisoner was a "cowardly murderer," and frantically endeavoring to fly at his throat, he proved himself to be as much of a man of ungoverned passions as the prisoner in the dock. That the Prince did carry a wound on his cheek was undeniable, though friends, doctors and policemen rather clumsily testified to the fact; against this also is the fact that the deceased's tight fitting and closely buttoned gloves showed no marks of having given a blow. The rest of the evidence was all leather or prunello. It was to try such an issue that the panoply of an exceptional tribunal was prepared. From the moment of his arrest the accused was specially favored, and if, on the whole, the High Court was not partial to him, they were remarkably tender, and never forgot it was a Prince of the blood that was arraigned.

The counsel for the Noir family sank the victim for their personal ambitions; they simply "laid down pipe" for the next general election. Was it not by the "Baudin body" that Gambetta won his spurs? Maitre Laurier, the leading counsel on the evening of the crime, held forth in the Cafe Riche, that Pierre Napoleon had acted right in killing Noir; but this was his unprofessional opinion. Unhappy Victor Noir, whom his friends would place in the Pantheon, a fortnight before his death, sought an engagement on the staff of the Constitutionnel, a Bonapartist journal! His father receives 25 000 francs from the hand that slew his son.

> "But the jingling of the guinea helps the hurt > that honor feels."

And that same father, a rare thing for a Jewish parent to do, turned Victor on the streets, when but fifteen years old, to seek his livelihood.

Respecting the Prince, he has fully proved, that "rank is but the guinea's stamp." He has been most successful in escaping the consequences of some half dozen homicides. His opposing counsel showed to his cost how "men's evil manners live in brass." He is a faithful type of violence—a man of the Fifteenth Century, who has strayed into the Nineteenth. His insolent air, eyes of fire, clenched hands, and guttural voice, called for the Humane Society to ticket him "dangerous." Instead of having a revolver for a pocket companion, he ought to be protected by keepers. There was a laughing devil in his sneer—not a spark of regret for the deed. True, he was goaded to madness by the Picadors of the Marseillaise, which seemed to have extinguished his humanity. Evidence was given as to his character, but the world knew Pierre Napoleon.

> "Full twenty times was Peter feared,
> For once that Peter was respected."

Between the friends of the "enfant du peuple" in his grave, and —— the Prince of the "Blood," the High Court of Justice at Tours, has shown, is only that difference "'twixt tweedledum and tweedledee."

The Corps Legislatif has again taken a few hollidays, so that really there is some room for the epigram, that the sessions of body are vacations, exceptionally interrupted by a few sittings. The Cabinet is still not up to time in presenting its measures, and the country is becoming a little wearied in being continually reminded the ministers are "honest men." To know them by their fruits is more generally demanded. Also, the Ministry is beginning to wear out the patience of the House, and has lately rather superciliously treated the opposition in declining discussions on protected reforms. If forced, says the leader of the Cabinet, we will resign—a threat a little too frequently used. M. Ollivier exacts confidence and silence.

The process of canning eggs in their own shells was recently explained at a meeting of the New York Farmers' Club. It is done in this manner: When two or three dozen eggs are obtained from the nests, place them in a dish and pour scalding water over them, and immediately turn it off. This process is repeated three times by which means the albumen is fixed or coagulated, the pores of the shell closed, and the egg, as it were, canned in its own covering. The eggs thus prepared are then packed in salt, with the apex downward, and they are said to keep perfectly fresh for many months.

Georgia News.

The Columbus Sun states that, Mr. Henry has rented the barber shop in the new hotel at Atlanta, to be erected by the Messrs. Kimball.

The Gainesville Eagle states that, William Gray died at his residence in Hall county, Georgia, on the 1st April, inst., aged 75 years 4 months and 7 days.

THROUGH AND COLUMBUS COTTON.—Since September 1st to Saturday last, the Montgomery and West Point Railroad has brought from Montgomery, en route for Savannah, 30,694 bales, from 3,852 for Columbus warehouses from way stations; total, 34,546.

The Griffin Empire State says: We learn from different parts of the county that the peach crop is damaged very much by the late colds. Perhaps three-fourths off, and the cherry about half, but the apple and pear is full. Vegetation generally is late. Corn scarcely up, and great complaint of bad stands. Wheat is not fine.

The Columbus Sun says: There was a fight just beyond the upper city bridge, on the Alabama side, about 9 o'clock Friday night, between two youths, each about 19 years old, in which William Jackson was shot and killed by Doc Davis, who had just been stabbed severely in several places by Jackson.

The Gainsville Eagle says: Col. B. Y. Sage, Chief Engineer of the Air-Line Railroad left here for Atlanta and Charlotte, N. C., where the corps will meet him for the purpose of adjusting the final action on that terminus of the Road to be built. Whilst here he located the Depot for Gainesville on the grade level South of the town, about ¾ of a mile from the Court House, on Mr. Merritt's land. The Rabun Gap and the Macon and Knoxville lines will join the Athens and Rabun Road at this place.

The Colored Citizens not to be Fooled by Radical Humbuggery—The Feeling Among Sensible Negroes in Missouri.

A correspondent of the Missouri Republican, writing from Pike county, Missouri, concerning the recent jubilee held there in honor of the 15th Amendment, says:

One shrewd darkey, whom I have known for years, assured me he could neither be bought nor sold now. He knew these Pike county Radicals very well. They had no use for colored people, he said, except to help keep up their party, and he had no use for them. He regarded as the best friends those who furnished the colored people with employment and lent them a helping hand in times of need. This very few Radicals either did or could do. They simply wanted the colored people's votes. Another said nearly every dollar he could raise to defray the expenses of this celebration came from white men who were not Radicals. A third assured me the colored people were a good deal divided on political matters now, and would be more so before an election came off.

In point of fact, however, the mass of the colored people in Pike county care no more about the Fifteenth Amendment and other political matters, than they do about the next earthquake. They do not talk about politics, and necessarily do not read. Instead, they are as busy as bees making crops on lands almost always belonging to men who are not Radicals, or working for hire on the farms of men of the same class. The probabilities are that very many colored men in the country will neither register nor vote next fall. Of those who do, not near all will vote with the Radicals. They know which side of their bread is buttered, and will be likely to study where their bread and butter comes from and is to come from in the future.

THE WAR OF NECKS.

Empress Eugenie and Madame Ollivier at Loggerheads About Nude Bosoms.

Have I ever mentioned, writes a Paris correspondent, the innovation of Madame Ollivier, the wife of the new French Premier? She has successfully inaugurated the fashion of wearing high evening dresses, and her salon is now nightly filled with ladies who are willing to dress as nature demands and as common decency dictates. I had not long ago an interesting discussion on this subject with an old lady of ninety-four—the same I once mentioned to you as having been born on Independence day. We were both at an evening party, where the very lowest of low dresses prevailed.

My old friend pointed out to me one charming young woman, who had reduced her upper gear to the smallest possible dimensions, and said to me, "What shall I give you if you will call on that lady to-morrow and ask her as a favor to indulge you with a tete-a-tete in that same dress?" "What," said I, "the treasure in the Bank of England could not induce me to venture upon such a thing; I'd be murdered outright." "Right," replied the old lady, and then added, somewhat sadly and sarcastically, "and yet she, who would receive such a proposition as a deadly insult, and would refuse to expose herself in private to you alone, without the slightest scruple here calls you in common with a hundred others to come and look as long as you please!"

I wonder if any low-necked damsel has ever thought of the matter in this light. Madame Ollivier's movement is thought to have more than ordinary significance. It was the Empress herself who, if she did not introduce the custom decidedly perpetuated it at her Court. It is the wife of a simple citizen, albeit risen to the first position in State below the Emperor, that thus quietly rebukes her imperial mistress. The Empress, however, persists in her old style, and I leave you to determine which is entitled to the most praise, Eugenie naked to her waist, or Madame Ollivier clad in tasteful and modest attire.

Schisms in the Roman Catholic Church.

The Rome correspondent of the New York Evening Post, speaking of the troubles in the Roman Catholic Church says:

Foreign relations do not look promising. There is a new schism among the Armenians, and the grand vizier has written to Antonelli, to say that he has given a church in Constantinople to the dissenters who number 300 families and 30 priests—evidently there ought to be no lack of religious instruction in that conventicle. There are the elements of a schism in France, and in Germany along the banks of the Rhine, whence Louis of Bavaria has dispatched a letter of congratulation to Dr. Doltinger, who has proved or tried to prove that the popes can not be infallible because Honorius did or did not do something; and Cardinal Cullen is getting out of favor with his Irish flock for denouncing Fenianism and supporting Gladstone, and for telling his Dublin congregations that any father who takes his children to see Schneider in "La Belle Helene," or "La Grande Duchesse," is certain to be damned, and that a "brother who would accompany his sister to see that abomination of desolation has lost his sense of decency." But, as in the Cid, Guzman ne connait pas d' obstacles, and the interference of the French government, or rather its demand for the admission to the council of a special representative, has only rendered the propaganda clique more determined to go in and win.

Last week it was known that a very unfriendly dispatch had been received by Monsieur de Banneville, who hesitated to present it to the minister of state until some of the Galican bishops threatened to report his disobedience of orders to the French foreign office. This decided him to act, although he did so most unwillingly, declining to support the communication by any remarks or arguments. The known ultramontanism of the ambassador was the cause of his appointment to Rome, as it will probably be of his recall; he is not on good terms with the cabinet, and the French papers in general demand a radical change in the Roman legation by the substitution of "brains and intelligence for blue blood and titles."

Judge Chase on Negro Suffrage.

Chief Justice Chase, in a letter addressed to Peter H. Clark and others, declining their invitation to be present at the Fifteenth Amendment celebration here, makes the following felicitious allusion to his famous "Pitcher Speech" at the Baker Street Church, twenty-five years ago:

Almost a quarter of a century has passed since some of you probably heard me declare, on the 6th of May, 1845, in an assembly composed chiefly of the people whom you now represent, that all legal distinctions between individuals of the same community founded on any such circumstances as color, origin and the like, are hostile to the genius of our institutions, and incompatible with the true theory of American liberty; "that true democracy makes no inquiry about the color of the skin, or the place of nativity, or any other similar circumstance of condition; and that the exclusion of the colored people, as a body, from the elective franchise is incompatible with true democratic principles."

I congratulate you on the fact that these principles, not then avowed by me for the first time, nor ever since abandoned or compromised, have been at length incorporated into the Constitution and made part of the supreme law of the land.

Feminine.

There is a lady in Washington who wears her own fair hair without a chignon, which fact deserves mention in honor of the one sensible woman of the age who does not disfigure herself with the current vile wad.

The letter from a Wyoming judge to Mrs. Bradwell, in which, in commenting upon the female jury system, he asserts that, in a late case, the jury of four men and four women were locked up in a single room for forty-eight hours is a pure fabrication—will be received with general satisfaction.

The Ladies' Sorosis Club, of New York, recently changed their discussions from woman's suffrage to hair preparations and pimple banishers. They declared that where nature had not endowed them with beauty, it was their right—yes, their duty—to seek it where they could.

The Sorosis claim Sappho as their tutelary deity, and propose to have a bust of the burning poetess placed at the head of their new room in Delmonico's, the only objection being that Sappho got fooling with water and was drowned, which circumstances might militate against the temperance proclivities of the sisterhood, and shake its faith in cold water.

The Eufaula Times says there is a terrible state of affairs in West Alabama, a young war has been waging for some time. There is an organized band of desperadoes, negroes and whites, who have declared their purpose to drive every rebel and Democrat out of that section, or kill, every male, old and young, and outrage every woman. Considerable excitement prevails.

UTERINE DISPLACEMENTS, (displacements of the womb,) Piles, Prolapsus ani, Ruptures, Varicocele, Spermatorrhœa, affections of the Spine, Heart, Lungs, and Throat, and all weaknesses of the male and female system radically cured by Banning's light, cool and scientific Braces and Supporters. Dr. Banning is at the National Hotel, and will remain a few days. Call for gratuitous pamphlet. feb12-d2f

L. Cohen & Co.—The California wines are leaping into an immense popularity. Their exquisite flavor and thorough purity are gaining ground for them daily. L. Cohen & Co. do a large trade in them, and have sent us a bottle to sample that equals anything we ever tried. We hope to see these pure native wines drive out completely the foreign adulterations that flood the country.

Movement of Coin in the Interior. The following has been the circulation of coin through Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express and Pacific Union Express Company for the year 1869, combined. The latter ceased business December 1, 1869:

	To Interior.	From Interior, and Coastwise.

In 1868	15,223,807	9,900,798

Boring for Salt in Prussia.—For the last two years, borings for rock-salt have been in progress in Sperenberg, near Berlin, Prussia; the latest reports, up to February, 1870, are that a depth of 2,725 feet had been reached, and the thickness of the salt bed explored to 2,430 feet. In order to judge of the exact position and extent of the same, a second boring was being undertaken.

Funny Inventions.

No more amusing chapter could be written than a plain description of some of the absurd inventions that are sought to be patented. The age is essentially inventive. A valuable invention is often the short road to wealth. Impecuniosity, spurring up ingenuity, drives ahead to grand results, as well as farcical failures.

Among the things that have tried the inventive genius of the day, perhaps no one has wasted more time to utter unprofitableness than the attempt to run vessels by wind power, independent of the mind. By a windmill, paddle-wheels are sought to be turned, and the ship guided in any direction. But the pressure on the axis of the windmill always impels the ship in the wind's direction, and thwarts the paddle-wheels comically.

Invention has worried at the problem, and triggered up numberless tricks, that all fail on trial.

The Georgia Bonds and the Bingham Amendment.

The resolution to inquire whether any bribery has been attempted in the United States Senate, in the Georgia matter, is creditable. The very natural enquiry arises whether it will amount to anything. The cadetship investigating developed wide corruption, but only resulted in the punishment of the pigmy culprit of the squad implicated. The effort at honesty then expended itself in the mild censure of anothe proven offender, and there the thing stalled right squarely, immoveable in mire too deep for further locomotion.

The Savannah Republican says that the Georgia bonds that have been used for the bribery are Brunswick and Albany Railroad bonds.

Trace it out, Messieurs Congressmen! There's rottenness there, if you can but reach it.

Radical Centralization Theory.

One of our New York exchanges, referring to the grand Radical scheme now in process, by which the American people are to be bound hand and foot, to serve as mere victims of party aggression, and the perpetuation of unholy power now so basely exercised by the Radicals, aptly says:

The example of the British government in taking possession of the telegraph lines is exciting the emulation of the Radicals in our own Congress. If this is done it will only be another step in the rapid progress towards centralization which the Radicals have made since the beginning of the late war. Should the general election law now before Congress pass, the entire process of the election of members of the Federal government will be placed under the control of the party in power.

What Radical Consistency Is.

Many of our readers are aware that Blodgett, Bullock and others of that ring, for months, denounced Dr. Bard as a traitor to the Republican party. When they thought it for their interest to do so, they gave him letters to the President, recommending him as one of the ablest and truest Republicans in the State.

There's candor for you! honesty, consistency, the people's welfare, etc., so diligently preached by the Radical leaders of Georgia, and their hired scribblers for the press, whose nauseating duty it is to manufacture falsehoods upon the people out of the whole cloth, and to commend whatever is low, mischievous, dangerous and contemptible in the Radical legislation of an unscrupulous Congress.

But the fool who shot arrows at the moon was repaid for his folly by finding them all flying back upon his own head; a parable that this Radical ilk should take to heart, before it is too late to retrieve their approaching political ruin.

Great Inventions and their Results.

Among the benefits of our Southern poverty, is the stimulated activity of our inventive genius. The North has been supposed to absorb this power. But the records of the Patent Office, since the war, show that Southern character has a bright endowment in this direction.

We trust that Southern genius has great inventive triumphs before it.

The tremendous results that have followed great inventions, are full of encouragement.

The invention of the cotton gin revolutionized the world almost. The creation of the automatic machinery, by which the production of cotton fabrics had been brought in this century, to a thousand-fold what it was last century, was the direct result of the cotton gin.

What the steam engine has done, it is a matter of simple impossibility to estimate. It does every thing. It grapples with difficulties that before were regarded as impossible. It is used, and has given stimulus and growth to every branch of industry. It is said that up to the invention of the steam engine, mining in England had begun to be unprofitable, and this saved her prosperity.

Victor Hugo, it is said in Brussels, will soon be married to a very wealthy young woman of that city.

IMPORTANT TO DISTILLERS.

Notice Issued by Commissioner Delano.

The following circular letter has been issued by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF INTERNAL REVENUE,
WASHINGTON, April 8, 1870.

The attention of revenue officers and distillers is called to the provisions of section 7, act of July 20, 1868, requiring "that every distiller shall, on the first day of May of each succeeding year, make and execute a bond in the form prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with at least two sureties, to be approved by the Assessor of the District," and shall also file his notice of his intention to continue business with the Assessor on form 27. In this connection, attention is called to the fact that a want of uniformity in the manner of enforcing and complying with these requirements in previous years has given rise to very perplexing irregularities, both to the Government and to the distiller, which it is hoped may be obviated by observing the following directions:

Distillers should understand that with the last day of April their rights as distillers cease, and those intending to then discontinue distilling must so arrange their business as to terminate all work at their distillery on the last day of April, and not, as has been so frequently done, have beer on hand to be distilled on the first days of May. This office can not do otherwise in such cases than to treat the parties as illicit distillers.

Distillers intending to discontinue business should, on the 3th day of April, register their stills as not for use. A distiller desiring to continue his business can only do so legally by giving his notice (form 27) and executing his bond on the 1st day of May, in compliance with the requirements of said section 7. Such distiller should have his bond complete and ready for execution, with his notice (form 27) prepared and presented to the Assessor a sufficient length of time in advance of the 1st day of May to enable him to make the necessary investigations by that day, so that he may, on the 1st day of May, when the bond is executed, approve or disapprove such bond. When the bond is approved on the 1st day of May the distiller may continue his work at his distillery, but where the bond is disapproved, the mere fact of having presented it confers no right upon the distiller, but he will be regarded as having failed to give bond as required by said section, and must cease all work at his distillery.

The Assessor, in approving the bonds, should endorse his approval thereon, giving the date of such approval, and sign his name thereto officially. The fact that the distiller may fail to renew his bond, or that the bond offered by him may not be approved, does not require the withdrawal of the spirits that he may have in bonded warehouse. It is true that a distillery warehouse will only be established for an authorized distiller, and at an authorized distillery; yet, having been so established, the distiller has acquired the right, under the law, to have his spirits remain in bond according to the conditions of his warehousing bond, which is, that the tax shall be paid thereon before removal from such distillery warehouse, and within one year from the date of such bond.

It has been ruled, therefore, by this office that the distillery warehouse will be continued as such, in charge of the storekeeper assigned thereto, until all the spirits stored therein are withdrawn and the tax paid thereon, the distiller, of course, being liable upon his bond securing to the Government the compensation of such storekeeper.

In preparing the notice (form 27.) reference should be given to sections 6 and 15 of the act of July 20, 1868, and the notice be prepared in strict conformity therewith.

Errors most frequently occur in the description of the distillery premises, either in being too indefinite, or in embracing a large tract of land, most of which evidently constitutes no part of the distillery premises. The description should be limited to the parcel of land actually used in connection with the distillery, and for that purpose alone, and should be as particular as is required in a deed of conveyance.

The land being thus described, the size and description of each building situate thereon, and of what material constructed, should be given, and the building used or intended to be used as a distillery warehouse should be indicated, with an additional statement that no door, window, or other opening is in the walls of such warehouse leading into the distillery, or any other room or building, and that said warehouse is situated on and constitutes a part of said distillery premises. The precise nature of the title to the distillery building, apparatus and premises should also be stated, and where the written consent of the owner of the fee, or holder of liens or bonds are substituted in lieu of an unincumbered fee simple, that fact should appear.

In this connection, see section 8, act of July 20, 1868, and the second paragraph of section 1, act of April 10, 1869.

The importance of so accurately describing the premises will be seen when it is remembered that under certain circumstances the Government acquires important liens thereon; that the distiller is prohibited from carrying on any other business on his distillery premises; that revenue officers have certain rights to enter and inspect distillery premises, and that in certain cases the distillery premises are forfeited to the United States. The extent of the premises, therefore, should be definite and certain, and the description in the form 27 is what must be referred to to determine their extent.

The distiller must name in his notice (form 27) the "number of hours in which he will ferment each tub of mash or beer," and will be required to operate his distillery upon this fermenting period, but assessments will be made against him on the basis of the survey, a copy of the report of which was last delivered to him.

Where bonds are not approved until after the 1st day of May, or where presented for approval on the 1st day of May by those commencing business, the approval should not be made until the Assessor is advised by this office that the form 27, report of survey, plan and warehouse are approved and storekeeper assigned. But in the case of those offering bonds for approval on the 1st day of May, with a view of continuing business, the approval will be made without awaiting advices from this office, as in such cases the papers alluded to must have already had the approval of this office.

By reference to paragraph 8 of section 1, act of April 10, 1869, it will be seen that "every person who sells or offers for sale foreign or domestic distilled spirits, wines or malt liquors, in quantities of not less than five gallons at the same time, shall be regarded as a wholesale liquor dealer."

By the following paragraph distillers and brewers who have paid special tax as such, and who sell only distilled spirits or malt liquors of their own production, at the place of manufacture, in the original cask or package, to which the tax stamps are affixed, are exempted from paying the special tax of wholesale liquor dealers on account of such sales.

Distillers, therefore, in selling spirits of their own production, must do so in their capacity of wholesale dealers, but are exempted from paying special tax as wholesale liquor dealers, provided the sale is made within the period for which they have paid a special tax as distillers.

If, therefore, a distiller who ceases to pay special tax as such shall have spirits in bond, he can only make sale of the same by paying the special tax as a wholesale liquor dealer, unless prior to such sales he gives notice and pays tax as a distiller.

C. DELANO, Commissioner.

A HINT TO LEGISLATORS.

How Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton "Puts the Vote" on the Woman Suffrage Question.

In a recent letter from Iowa, where the illustrious she-demagogue is engaged in public talks concerning her little female amelioration scheme, she says:

I have a new way of putting the vote: "Let all those who are in favor keep their seats, and those opposed rise." In this way one gets the most favorable response, because women, like inanimate objects, generally need some external force to put them in motion, and the mass of them would not rise up to save the nation. Thus, you perceive, the odium and fatigue of rising is thrown on the enemy, and on the principle above stated, "natural inertia," the opposition is far less in any audience than one might anticipate. Some carping persons have criticised this way of putting the vote, but I see no reason why we should vote just as men do, but every reason why we should do all things differently. If you call for the ayes a few deep-voiced men could drown out hundreds of women. Seeing, then, that women will not raise their voices nor stand up, it is fair and wise to take their approval of everything by silence and the sitting posture.

FIRST DISPATCH.

The Bingham Amendment.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—In the evening session of the Senate, Schurz made a concise and logical argument against the perpetuation of the Georgia Legislature.

Trumbull followed in support of the Bingham Amendment. It is understood that he is to close the debate, and a vote will be taken to-night.

ARGUS.

SECOND DISPATCH.

Pomeroy's Amendment Adopted.

12 M.—Trumbull's closing remarks were followed by applause in the galleries, which the chair promptly suppressed. At 11:20, the Senate proceeded to vote on the pending amendment. Wilson moved an amendment to strike out the Bingham proviso, and insert a proviso extending the term of the Legislature till 1872. Pomeroy moved to amend Wilson's amendment by substituting therefor his amendment, declaring the existing government of Georgia provisional, constituting the 3d Military District, and providing for an election for a Legislature on Nov. 15, 1870. Pomeroy's substitute was agreed to—yeas 37, nays 24, as follows:

Yeas—Abbott, Ames, Anthony, Buckingham, Carpenter, Casserly, Cole, Corbet, Cragin, Davis, Edmunds, Ferry, Fowler Hamilton, of Maryland, Hamlin, Harlan, Howe, Kellogg, McCreery, Morrill, of Maine, Morrill, of Vermont, Patterson, Pomeroy, Pool, Pratt, Robertson, Saulsbury, Sawyer, Schurz, Scott, Sherman, Stockton, Thurman, Tipton, Trumbull, Warner, Willey—37.

Nays—Boreman, Brownlow, Drake, Fenton, Flanagan, Hamilton, of Texas, Harris, Howard, Howell, McDonald, Morton, Nye, Osborn, Ramsay, Revels, Rice, Ross, Spencer, Stewart, Sumner, Thayer, Williams, Wilson, Yates—24.

Cameron, Gilbert and Chandler, against the amendment, paired off with Bayard, Vickers and Conkling, in favor of it.

The question then being on inserting the amendment of Wilson, as amended by Pomeroy, in place of the Bingham amendment in the bill, involving the striking out of the latter provision, it was determined affirmatively—yeas 36, nays 22, as follows:

Yeas—Abbott, Ames, Anthony, Brownlow, Buckingham, Carpenter, Casserly, Cole, Corbett, Davis, Edmunds, Ferry, Fowler, Hamilton of Maryland, Hamlin, Harlan, Howe, Kellogg, McCreery, Morrill of Maine, Morrill of Vermont, Patterson, Pomeroy, Pool, Pratt, Robertson, Saulsbury, Sawyer, Schurz, Scott, Sherman, Stockton, Thurman, Tipton, Warner, Willey—36.

Nays—Boreman, Drake, Fenton, Flanagan, Hamilton of Texas, Harris, Howard, Howell, McDonald, Morton, Nye, Osborn, Revels, Rice, Spencer, Stewart, Sumner, Thayer, Trumbull, Williams, Wilson, Yates—22.

The bill was therefore amended as proposed.

Wilson moved to postpone further consideration of the bill, indefinitely. Lost—yeas 23, nays 39.

Sumner moved to adjourn, remarking that the bill had been so changed that it would not be known by the oldest inhabitant. [Laughter.] The motion was subsequently withdrawn.

Pomeroy then moved his amendment as a substitute for the whole bill. Agreed to—yeas 38, nays 23.

Nye congratulated the Democratic side on having voted solid to put Georgia back under military rule.

Thurman, on behalf of Democratic side, declined to be led into a discussion at this time.

Drake offered an amendment, authorizing the President to suppress domestic violence, to suspend the writ of habeas corpus, and to make municipalities responsible in damages for injuries to persons or property, within their limits, and not suppressed by them. Rejected—yeas 30, nays 31.

Drake renewed the amendment, omitting the part relative to the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus within the limits of municipalities. Adopted—yeas 32, nays 20.

Trumbull and Edmunds expressed the opinion that the suspension of the writ was included, and Edmunds moved to add the words, "that nothing in the act shall be construed to authorize such suspension."

It was rejected—yeas 29; nays 39.

Pomeroy offered an amendment repealing certain laws so as to permit the organization and calling into service the militia of Georgia; it was agreed to by a party vote—yeas 48; nays 9. The bill was then read a third time and passed—yeas 27; nays 25.

Yeas—Ames, Anthony, Buckingham, Carpenter, Cole, Corbett, Cragin, Edmunds, Ferry, Hamlin, Howe, Kellogg, Morrill of Maine, Morrill of Vermont, Patterson, Pomeroy, Pool, Pratt, Ross, Sawyer, Schurz, Scott, Sherman, Tipton, Trumbull, Warner, Willey—27.

Nays—Boreman, Chandler, Drake, Fenton, Flanagan, Fowler, Hamilton of Texas, Harris, Howard, Howell, McDonald, Morton, Nye, Osborn, Ramsey, Revels, Rice, Spencer, Stewart, Sumner, Thayer, Trumbull, Williams, Wilson, Yates—25.

Adjourned.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—In the House Butler, of Massachusetts, offered a resolution abolishing the income tax. Referred to Committee on Ways and Means.

The New York post-office was discussed two hours, when the case of Sypher vs. St. St. Martin, contestants, from Louisiana, was taken up. Kerr made a masterly effort in behalf of the people of Louisiana. Great interest attaches to the question. The vote will be taken to-morrow morning. The chances seem to be Sypher will not get his seat, and St. Martin being declared ineligible, the seat will remain vacant.

The House is in session to-night on the tariff question. The pig iron bill is still pending.

In the Senate, Chandler offered an amendment to the resolution directing the Committee on Judiciary to inquire whether rebels had attempted to use corrupt influences to secure votes on the Georgia Bill.

Ferry objected and the motion went over.

Chandler offered a resolution requesting the President to appoint two Commissioners to open negotiations with the people of Winnepeg, with a view of annexation.

Georgia Bill Resumed.

The Georgia bill was resumed and discussed until recess, with Schurz on the floor.

The Senate reassembled at 7:30. The vote will be doubtless reached before morning.

Schurz opposed the schemes of designing men within Republican ranks.

Trumbull called attention to an arrant speech to a crowd in this city by a member of the Senate, in which the statement was made, that the speaker has reconnoitered the Senate, and the Bingham Amendment would be defeated. He denounced this as an attempt to intimidate the Senate.

Trumbull will probably speak an hour or two, when the vote will be taken.

Railroad Bonds Used to Defeat the Bingham Amendment.

In the Senate the Judiciary Committee, to-day, commenced the examination of witnesses in relation to the alleged attempts to secure the defeat of the Bingham amendment by improper means. Judge James Hughes, Deputy Postmaster Porter, of this city, H. J. Ramdell, correspondent Cincinnati Commercial, were examined. It is understood that evidence was elicited going to show that Railroad Bonds, endorsed by the State of Georgia, were offered by outside parties to secure the votes of Senators against the Bingham amendment. Other witnesses have been subpoened.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Reports have been current here that Justice's Bradley and Strong, of the United States Supreme Court, would not sit on the rehearing of the legal tender cases, because objection would be made to them on account of being stockholders in the Railroad Companies owning bonds issued prior to the passage of the legal tender act. The principal and interest of which, under the recent decision of the Supreme Court were payable in gold. This proposed objection having been brought to the notice of the gentlemen concerned, Judge Bradley has stated that he transferred all his interest in such stocks immediately after his confirmation, and Judge Strong says it is his intention to dispose of the railroad shares which he now owns before the case comes to a hearing.

Political.

There are already signs of a row between radical negroes and radical whites in Philadelphia. SCHOFIELD TO SUCCEED THOMAS.—The published rumor that Brigadier-General Pope, now commanding the Department of the Lakes, is to succeed General Thomas in the command of the Military Division of the Pacific is untrue. Major-General Schofield, commanding the Department of the Missouri, will more than likely be assigned to the post, in accordance with his express wishes to that effect. As far back as when he was Secretary of War, he applied to be sent to California, but General Thomas wanting the place at the same time, General Schofield was obliged to content himself with the promise that he should have the refusal of it in case of a vacancy. The Railroad through Gwinnett.

The following private letter addressed to Colonel Sam J. Winn, by the Hon. Jerry Cowles, upon the subject of the important enterprise therein indicated, has been handed us for publication. We are pleased to note the fact that Mr. Cowles is now in our city in the interest of the contemplated Road, and will be pleased to see the friends of the enterprise.

MACON, GA., April 13, 1870.

Samuel J. Winn, Esq., Lawrenceville.

DEAR SIR: Your Esteemed communication of the 11th inst., was duly received.

The Ocmulgee and North Georgia Railroad is now under the control of the Corporators and the Authorities of the city of Macon. The Mayor of this city and a Committee appointed by its authority, will meet you and other Committees at Atlanta upon the reassembling of the Legislature. All interests here and below us want to go North through Morgantown, with a branch to Rabun Gap. We hope the best line will be through Lawrenceville. Charters are being obtained from Tennessee to meet the line where it will strike the Road now building from Nashville to Knoxville, and the Road likewise being built from Louisville to the same place, and the Road to be built from Cincinnati to Chattanooga with a branch to Knoxville.

We hope there will be a united effort of all the country through which the Road will run, and from the whole State to get the States' indorsement for $15,000 per mile (less than one half the cost of building the Road) to develop the vast resources of Georgia, and to connect the points of Florida with the North and West to their utmost limits.

It is unnecessary to state that the Charter of this Road was obtained several years since.

Be pleased to accept the sincere esteem of myself, and if I may speak for it, of the city of Macon, of yourself and citizens of Lawrenceville.

I remain, very truly, etc.
JERRY COWLES.

The Latest News.

The New Radical programme indicated by Senator Morton the other day regarding the Southern States is assuming shape. A member of the House is now drawing up a bill to give the President power to send troops into any portion of the reconstructed States without waiting for the call of the Governor or Legislature.

A new department, called the Department of Arizona, has been formed out of Arizona and Southern California, and Gen. Stoneman assigned to command it.

Mr. Caldwell, sent here as Minister from Bolivia, says he has not yet received any official notice that he can not be recognized in that capacity. He thinks precedents are in his favor, and that he will ultimately carry his point, but Secretary Fish holds a different view.

The talk among Senators is that Pomeroy's Amendment to the Georgia bill providing for the new election of members to the Legislature in November is likely to prevail. A thorough canvass of the Senate shows that Bingham's Amendment stands no chance whatever of being adopted, although he is working energetically to secure its passage. Some doubts are manifested as to the Senate taking a vote on Tuesday.

It is presumed that very important facts to the present line of defense will be clearly developed next week in the McFarland trial. No new evidence in relation to his insanity. This part of the city is rapidly building up, and for sure renting tenants is first-class; there is not a vacant house in this part of the city. The lots, it will be seen, are of good size for building, garden spots, etc. The water is pure and good. Hacks and all such conveniences on hand. Titles indisputable.

RETURNED.—Hon. E. P. Howell has returned to the city, looking as rosy as ever.

STONE MOUNTAIN HOTEL.—Col. J. J. Morrison has taken charge of the new Hotel at Stone Mountain.

RAIN.—The weather moderated yesterday, and there were several slight showers of rain. Toward night it cleared off cool.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.—We learn that Trinity Sabbath School, this year will "picnic" at some point on the Air-Line Railroad.

MR. B. F. WYLY was severely bruised yesterday by being thrown from a buggy on Mitchell street.

ACCORDING to agreement the Sheriff's Sales of Fulton County will be published hereafter in the Atlanta Intelligencer.

TO THE LADIES.—To-day is the time selected for the meeting of the ladies at the City Hall, to make preparations for decorating the soldier's graves. A full attendance is requested.

LOST on Monday night last, between the Medical College and the First Baptist Church, a Lady's Fur Cape; for which the finder will receive a suitable reward by leaving it at this office.

PHILLIPS & CREW.—Messrs. Phillips & Crew are removing their stock of Books and Stationery to the old Norcross Corner, (Marietta and Peachtree streets,) where they hope to meet with all their old, and many new, friends.

JOHN T. HALL.—Col. G. W. Adair has secured the services of Mr. John T. Hall as assistant salesman. Mr. Hall is an energetic and reliable gentleman, and Col. Adair is fortunate in securing his services.

THE STREET COMMITTEE.—The Street Committee have commenced a good work, and are determined to "mend the ways" of the city. In another column will be found an advertisement calling for proposals for flagging to pave the side-walks.

A PRESENT.—We acknowledge the receipt, from a special friend, of a valuable acquisition, in what he styles a "fighting editor," but which resembles, to us, a fine specimen of the Owl. An English friend says that h-owl 'as a big 'ead and h-eyes!

I. O. OF G. T.—A meeting of the Degree Temple, I. O. G. T., will be held in Good Templar's Hall, in James' Building, on Whitehall street, this evening, at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

FRED HOPE,
April 20. Degree Templar.

GEO. SHARP, JR.—This young jeweler has established a handsome business in this wide-awake city. He always keeps a magnificent stock of goods on hand. But he owes his success largely to his appreciation of the value of advertising. He has fine jewelry, and he lets people know it.

REV. A. B. EARLE.—We understand that this eminent evangelist preached last evening in the First Baptist Church. He preaches in the same place this afternoon at 3½ o'clock, and to-night at 8 o'clock, he may be expected to preach in the 2d Baptist Church. The public is cordially invited.

THE DOLLAR SAVING'S BANK.—This institution is located under the National Hotel, and has one of the neatest offices in the city. Messrs. Gordon, Willis & Co. are the officers, and well known in this community. Connected with the Bank, is a Real Estate Agency, in which our friend, E. D. L. Mobley, is at home.

REMOVED.—Dougherty W. Hutchins, the Star Barber, has removed his Shaving Saloon to the basement under the store of McMillan & Snow, corner of Broad and Marietta streets. Dougherty has erected a handsome emblematical sign, "Wade and Butcher," and has fitted up his Saloon in fine style. If you want a clean shave call on Dougherty.

GRAND PROMENADE AND SUPPER.—The Grand Promenade and Supper of the Young Men's Benevolent Society comes off at the City Hall to-night. The programme embraces twenty-one sets for dancing, and a magnificent supper at 12 o'clock, arranged by the ladies. The proceeds of the entertainment will be devoted to charitable purposes.

WE are gratified to know that Special Agent J. B. Ezell paid, on yesterday, to Mrs. Wheeler, widow of the late Thomas W. Wheeler, the insurance policy on his life, $4,000. The Company, the Equitable Life Assurance Society, is one of the strongest and most flourishing in the country, having done largely more business during the last year than any company in the United States.

Colonel G. W. Adair is the Agent in this city, and W. B. Shaw, Esq., Agent for South Carolina, Middle and Northern Georgia.

DON'T FAIL to try the Job Office of THE CONSTITUTION.

THE DECORATION.—Mr. Editor: In view of the lateness of the Spring, and consequent scarcity of flowers, we would respectfully suggest to the ladies the propriety of reconsidering their determination to decorate the graves of Confederate soldiers on the 26th inst., and the adoption of the 10th of May, the date that was chosen last year; and, we believe, in previous years, also. At all points South of this, the 26th April answers well enough, but in the locality of Atlanta, at that time, there is almost a total absence of flowers, without which the sad ceremony can not be invested with that beauty it should receive at our hands.

"We'll scatter o'er your lowly beds
The beauteous flowers of May;
And pray that God may ever bless
The boys that wore the grey."

In addition to the reasons assigned above, we are informed that improvements have been commenced at the Confederate grounds which can not be completed by the 26th instant, and it is hoped the ladies will take such action as may be necessary to the desired postponement.

ONE OF THE "BOYS IN GRAY."

We think the suggestions contained in the above well-timed, and worthy the attention of the ladies.

FANCY Printing done at THE CONSTITUTION Job Office.

ATLANTA, April 19, 1870.

Mr. Local: I have just been reading in your paper of the ladies of Atlanta and elsewhere preparing to commemorate the Confederate dead, which is laudable and right, but we should not forget, in our zeal for the dead, the unfortunate living soldiers.

There is now living in Fairburn, Campbell county, a brave and gallant Captain (W. R. Elder) who was shot blind in the battle of Chickamauga while bravely leading his men in the fight. The different medical faculties he has visited pronounce it a hopeless case of blindness, and say he must forever remain in perpetual darkness, which seems almost as bad as losing or giving one's life for his country.

Capt. Elder is known to many of our citizens—a perfect gentleman in every respect. He is cheerful, lively, and gay; fond of company; loves music; says he spends much of his time sawing on an old violin, having lost much by the war, he is not able to purchase an instrument more melodious or more to his taste. His chosen companion, an amiable lady, was a fair daughter of Atlanta. They have a bright-eyed little girl of two summers. I propose to assist in buying a piano for the Captain's lady, and cheerfully give five dollars, which I send with the request that you publish this letter and aid me all you can, and I trust their friends and all others who are disposed to help the unfortunate brave will also assist us. Those who give, if it be but a small amount, will accept our thanks and send it to you or to Mrs. Elder, Fairburn, as I learn her husband is at this time absent from home on a visit to New Orleans, for the purpose of having Dr. Stone, of that city, treat his eyes.

The $5 received has been turned over to our News Editor, Mr. Charles W. Hubner, will take great pleasure in receiving all amounts so donated, and forward the same to Mrs. Elder.

WHY IS IT THE CONSTITUTION Job Office gets up so many Pamphlets and Catalogues to print?

ANSWER—Because the work can't be beat for cheapness and superiority of style.

Latest Market Reports.

[CORRECTED DAILY.]

CONSTITUTION OFFICE,
ATLANTA, April 19, 10 o'clock, P. M.

There is no change in the markets this afternoon. Cotton is firm at 20 1-2 for middlings.

GENERAL MARKETS.

CINCINNATI, April 16.

CORN—The offerings to-day were more liberal, while the demand has fallen off and the market to-day was dull, and prices in favor of sellers, rates being 1c lower than yesterday, and there was only a moderate demand at the decline. The distillers are generally holding back in anticipation of lower prices, and there was only a moderate inquiry from the local dealers. No demand for export. Sound mixed ear or shelled sold at 85a86 on the landing or at the lower depots, the bulk of the transactions being at the inside price. At the Covington Depots sales were made 2a3 less than the rates quoted above. Buyers refuse to pay any more for white than mixed.

Provisions have ruled very quiet since my last. Yesterday being Good Friday, there was very little done, having no dispatches, as the day was rigidly observed at Chicago and New York. To-day there is no animation, and but a few orders in—all from the South. The feeling was rather heavy on the whole, which may have been partly induced by the weather, which is cold and dismal—has been raining and snowing alternately all day.

CORN—Large sales of corn have been reported. Choice shelled has sold readily at 1 00 per bushel, sacks included. Stocks are below the requirements of the trade, and prices are strong, with an upward tendency. Inferior grades are selling at from 70a85, in bulk, for local consumption. Ear corn is steady at 87a90 per bushel.

WHEAT—There is a moderate business doing in wheat, and prices for red hill and white wheat range from 1 00a1 15 on arrival, and 1 10a1 20 from store.

LEAF TOBACCO—The market during the week has been active, with good receipts, and closes firm with an upward tendency. Prices have steadily advanced during the week, and all grades were largely sought after at prices which are highly satisfactory to planters. The sales for the week have been large, aggregating 1,508 hhds.

NEW ORLEANS, April 16.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

A Broad and Prosperous Field in the South.

The Washington Chronicle in a late issue, speaking of this great and beneficial Association, says:

Rev. George A. Hall, the general secretary of the Association of this city, was commissioned as a general Y. M. C. A. agent for a tour through the principal Southern cities. He has now been absent some three or four weeks, and writes that he has visited Mobile, New Orleans, Jackson, Selma and Atlanta, at each of which points, contrary to the predictions of many, his reception has been most cordial in its nature. The churches very generally have appointed committees of consultation, and preparations have been made at each point for the formation of vigorous organizations. He is to visit Augusta, Savannah, Charleston, Wilmington and Richmond before returning to this city.

Georgia News.

Mrs. Z. T. Huguley, wife of Judge Huguley, of Pike county, died on Tuesday last.

The crops in Monroe county are said to be excellent, but fears are entertained that the late frost has injured the young corn.

The Monroe Advertiser of the 19th says: Jane Merritt died suddenly at her residence in this county, a few days ago, aged 65.

The Demosthenian Society of the University of Georgia has chosen Mr. W. S. McCarty, of Jefferson, and the Phi-Kappas, M. C. Beeks, of Griffin, to represent them as orators, at the commencement.

The Monroe Advertiser says: We learn that the Rev. W. A. Parks, Agent of the American Bible Society, proposes to hold the annual meeting of the American Bible Society on the first Sabbath in May.

The Monroe Advertiser, speaking of the Macon and North Georgia Rrailroad, says: The friends of this important enterprise appear to be growing both in numbers and enthusiasm, and meetings are being held in the various counties along the proposed route, for the purpose of furthering the project.

The Griffin Georgian says: On Sunday last the people of this section experienced strange weather. Snow fell for an hour. The thermometer stood at 35 degrees. There are differences of opinion as to the effect of the cold snap upon the wheat crop and gardens. We are inclined to think that not much damage was done except in places where the crop was very forward.

COTTON CLAIMS—MORE BRIBERY.—A Washingto correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette gives form and body to a story which has been floating about the streets of the capital for some time, to the effect that cotton claimants from the South are getting their suits through the Court of Claims by the use of money in some way, and parties from Savannah say the charge is openly and persistently made down there, that mony has been paid to some of the Judges of Solicitors. The Court deemed it wise to look into the matter, and on the 8th instant took the deposition of Mills, of Savannah, for use by the Government. He was on the stand for some time, and said he was interested in some of the largest claims, but had paid no money except as fees to his lawyers, and had no reason to suppose that any other persons had used money illegitimately. It is not known whether the Court will go further in the matter.

Singular Financial Transaction.

The Buffalo Express tells of a singular financial transaction which occurred in one of the dock offices in that city a day or two since. By some means or other it happened that the office boy owed one of the clerks three cents, the clerk owed the cashier two cents, and the cashier owed the office boy two cents. One day last week the office boy having a cent in his pocket, concluded to diminish his debt, and therefore handed the nickel over to the clerk, who, in turn, paid half of his debt by giving the coin to the cashier. The latter handed the cent back to the office boy, remarking, "Now I only owe you one cent." The office boy again passed the cent to the clerk, who passed it to the cashier, who passed it back to the office boy, and the latter individual squared all accounts, paying it to the clerk, thereby discharging his entire debt. Thus it may be seen how great is the benefit to be derived from a single cent, if only expended judiciously.

The Orientals have a chance occasionally to laugh at the blunders of the Americans. Recently a gentleman consulted the phrase book, then started down in Yokohama, seeking some No. 1 silk in the native stores. By a slight mistake of terms he put a whole street into a broad grin by inquiring at each door, "Have you any No. 1 fool here?" None could be found.

INFECTION IN THE AIR.—Experimental chemists have repeatedly analyzed the air at unhealthy seasons, in the hope of detecting the invisible virus which produces epidemic disease. They have not yet discovered it, and scarcely any two of them agree as to its nature. This is of little consequence. It is sufficient to know that this poisonous principle exists, and that a safeguard against its insidious influence has been provided. In the spring and early summer, when fever and ague, remittent fever, and other periodical diseases of that class are prevalent, it is only necessary to fortify the system with a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters to escape them. If this precaution has been neglected, which it never ought to be in any district liable to such visitations, and if the paroxysms of malarious fever have actually commenced, they may always be checked and broken up by a course of that powerful vegetable tonic and alterative. Quinine was once considered the only specific for chills and fevers; but it is now generally admitted that this nauseous alkaloid is a dangerous medicine, and that its secondary effects are more to be dreaded than any form of intermittent fever. It is simply a tremendous astringent. It does not touch the disordered liver, or regulate the bowels, or in any way improve the condition of the animal fluids. Hostetter's Bitters, on the other hand, in addition to being a better and safer tonic than any preparation of quinine, has a balsamic effect upon the whole system. It is aperent and anti-billious, as well as directly invigorating, and purifies the secretions as well as regulates the secretive organs. It stimulates the appetite, strengthens the stomach, soothes the nerves, promotes healthful perspiration, and induces quiet sleep. As a stomachic it has no rival. Cases of indigestion that no other tonic seems capable of alleviating, are cured in a few weeks by its regular use.

AN INTERVIEW BETWEEN A DOCTOR AND HIS PATIENT.—Three months ago Mr. James Henry Redding, of 509 Grove street, New York, was as he supposed, not far from death's door. His physician—considered a skillful one—had given him up, pronouncing his complaint atrophy. He was fearfully wasted and debilitated, had a constant pain in his right side, ate scarcely enough to keep a baby alive, and was much depressed in spirits. At this juncture, a clerk in the establishment where he had been employed, persuaded him to try a course of PLANTATION BITTERS. Last week he returned to business—his health being quite restored. The other day, on his way home, he met the physician who attended him, when the following conversation occurred: "What!" said the Doctor, "is this you?" "Even so," replied Mr. Redding, quietly. "You're not sorry to find yourself a false prophet, I hope?" "No, no; certainly not. But it's a miracle. How was it, my dear fellow? how was it?" Mr. R. told him the story of his recovery, (ascribing it wholly to the Bitters), and is willing to confirm it verbally or by letter whenever applied to.

KOSKOO.—This medicine is rapidly gaining the confidence of the people, and the numerous testimonials of its virtues, given by practitioners of medicine, leaves no doubt that it is a safe and reliable remedy for impurity of the blood, liver disease, etc.

The last Medical Journal contains an article from Prof. R. S. Newton, M. D., President of the E. Medical College, city of New York, that speaks in high terms of its curative properties, and gives a special recommendation of Koskoo to the practitioners of medicine. This is, we believe, the first instance where such medicines have been officially endorsed by the Faculty of any of the medical colleges, and reflects great credit upon the skill of Dr. Lawrence, its compounder, and also puts "Koskoo" in the van of all other medicines of the present day. feb26-d&w6m

JOY TO THE WORLD! WOMAN IS FREE! Among the many modern discoveries looking to the happiness and amelioration of the human race, none is entitled to higher consideration than the renowned remedy, Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator, Woman's Best Friend. By it woman is emancipated from the numberless ills peculiar to her sex. Before its magic power all irregularities of the womb vanish. It cures whites. It cures suppression of the menses. It removes uterine obstructions. It cures constipation and strengthens the system. It braces the nerves and purifies the blood. It never fails, as thousands of women will testify. This valuable medicine is prepared and sold by L. H. Bradfield, Druggist, Atlanta, Ga. Price $1.50 per bottle. All respectable drug men keep it.

DR. JOHN BULL'S Great Remedies.

DR. JOHN BULL,
Manufacturer and Vendor of the Celebrated
Smith's Tonic Syrup,
FOR THE CURE OF
AGUE AND FEVER,
—OR—
Chills and Fever.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the safe, certain, speedy and permanent cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southwestern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion, that in no case whatever will it fail to cure, if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually, this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order; should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of BULL'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient.

Bull's Worm Destroyer.

To my United States and World-wide Readers.

I have received many testimonials from professional and medical men, as my almanacs and various publications have shown, all of which are genuine. The following letter from a highly educated and popular physician in Georgia, is certainly one of the most sensible communications I have ever received. Dr. Clement knows exactly what he speaks of, and his testimony deserves to be written in letters of gold. Hear what the Doctor says of BULL'S WORM DESTROYER:

VILLANOW, Walker County, Ga., June 29, 1869.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: I have recently given your "Worm Destroyer" several trials, and find it wonderfully efficacious. It has not failed in a single instance to have the wished for effect. I am doing a pretty large country practice, and have daily use for some article of the kind. I am free to confess that I know of no remedy recommended by the ablest authors that is so certain and speedy in its effects. On the contrary, they are uncertain in the extreme. My object in writing you is to find out upon what terms I can get the medicine direct from you. If I can get it upon easy terms, I shall use a great deal of it. I am aware that the use of such articles is contrary to the teachings and practice of a great majority of the regular line M. D.'s but I see no just cause or good sense in discarding a remedy which we know to be efficient, simply because we may be ignorant of its combination. For my part, I shall make it a rule to use all and any means to alleviate suffering humanity which I may be able to command—not hesitating because some one more ingenious than myself may have learned its effects first, and secured the sole right to secure that knowledge. However, I am by no means an advocate or supporter of the thousands of worthless nostrums that flood the country, that purport to cure all manner of disease to which human flesh is heir. Please reply soon, and inform me of your best terms. I am, sir, most respectfully,

JULIUS P. CLEMENT M. D

Bull's Sarsaparilla.

A Good Reason for the Captain's Faith.

READ THE CAPTAIN'S LETTER AND THE LETTER FROM HIS MOTHER.

BENTON BARRACK'S, Mo., April 30, 1866.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: Knowing the efficiency of your Sarsaparilla, and the healing and beneficial qualities it possesses, I send you the following statement of my case.

I was wounded two years ago—was taken prisoner and confined for sixteen months. Being moved so often, my wounds have not healed yet. I have not set up a moment since I was wounded. I am shot through the hips. My general health is impaired, and I need something to assist nature. I have more faith in your Sarsaparilla than in anything else. I wish that that is genuine. Please express me half a dozen bottles, and oblige.

Capt. C. P. JOHNSON,
St. Louis, Mo.

P. S.—The following was written April 30, 1866, by Mrs. Jennie Johnson, mother of Captain Johnson:

DR. BULL—Dear Sir: My husband, Dr. C. S Johnson, was a skillful surgeon and physician in Central New York, where he died, leaving the above C. P. Johnson to my care. At thirteen years of age he had a chronic diarrhœa and scrofula, for which I gave him your Sarsaparilla. IT CURED HIM. I have for ten years recommended it to many in New York, Ohio and Iowa, for scrofula, fever sores and general debility. Perfect success has attended it. The cures effected in some cases of scrofula and fever sores were almost miraculous. I am very anxious for my son to again have recourse to your Sarsaparilla. He is fearful of getting a spurious article, hence his writing to you for it. His wounds were terrible, but I believe he will recover.

Testimony of Medical Men

STONEY POINT, White Co., Ark., May 23, 1866.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: Last February I was in Louisville purchasing drugs, and I got some of your Sarsaparilla and Cedron Bitters.

My son-in-law, who was with me in the store, has been down with rheumatism for some time, commenced on the Bitters, and soon found his general health improved.

Dr. Gist, who has been in bad health, tried them, and he also improved.

Dr. Coffee, who has been in bad health for several years—stomach and liver affected—he improved very much by the use of your Bitters. Indeed, the Cedron Bitters has given you great popularity in this settlement. I think I could sell a great quantity of your medicines this fall, especially of your Cedron Bitters and Sarsaparilla. Ship me via Memphis, care Rickett & Neely.

This Mill is located 4½ miles from Palmetto, in one of the most fertile sections of Middle Georgia, and one of the best neighborhoods in Campbell county. THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION.

LOVE ONE ANOTHER.

BY ELIZA COOK.

We dream of music heard in Heaven,
Of hallelujahs loud and long;
Of golden lyres and seraph choirs,
And all the bliss of angel song.
But the rich strain and raptured flow
That pour around the mighty throne,
Spring from the key-note touched below,
When Jesus said, in gentle tone,
"Love one another."

We fondly picture future homes
Where there shall nevermore be night,
With crystal walls and azure domes
Bathed in the flood of Glory's light
We hope to walk the star-paved ground,
And claim a mansion high and pure;
But this plain corner-stone is found
Fixed here, to make that mansion sure—
"Love one another."

Short creed—but taught of God's own Son—
The Type of Truth and Human Good;
The Holy, Wise, Child-hearted One,
Who sealed His Mission with His Blood.
When scoffers led Him forth to die,
No hate, no vengeance filled His breath;
"Father, forgive them," was His cry,
Still teaching in His hour of death—
"Love one another."

☞ The Missouri Republican speaking editorially of the Georgia muddle in Congress says: Meanwile Georgia remains in a condition of blissful uncertainty, and waits the pleasure of her masters, but it is not difficult to guess what the result will be—if it is ever reached. The Bingham Amendment alluded to gives the people of Georgia the privilege of electing a new Legislature this fall, and as Bullock and his friends have particular reasons for not wanting a new Legislature just now, the Bingham Amendment will be eliminated from the bill, and the Williams Amendment incorporated therein. The latter provides that the present Legislature shall continue in office until November 1872, and, as the Bullock party will doubtless drain the treasury of Georgia by that time, they have no objections to retiring then upon their laurels. This will be the sum and substance of the affair—the crowning act which shall complete that curious edifice known as "our restored Union."

"LOVE LEVELS ALL RANKS"

A Young Orange (N. J.) Lady, Aged Sixteen, Runs off with her Father's ex-Coachman—The Marriage—The Parents Relent.

About two years ago in the employ of Mr. Elijah D. Burnet, a highly respectable merchant, was a young man of rather pleasing exterior and address, named William Culbert. His occupation was that of coachman.

A daughter of his employer, Miss Annie V. Burnet, then about in her fourteenth or fifteenth year, but large and womanly for her age, took a decided liking for the good-looking coachman, which penchant after some time, ripened into genuine affection. William was, of course, delighted with the state of affairs, though some considerable time elapsed before he realized the exact state of the damsel's feelings towards him. This discovered, on the principle, doubtless, that love begets love, a full reciprocity of the tender feeling followed. In the meanwhile the attachment was jealously guarded by the lovers, so that the parents of the girl never dreamed of the matter. Some business reverses necessitated the partial breaking up of Mr. Burnet's domestic establishment, and young Culbert left, as his employer thought, for parts unknown.

By means only known to lovers under similar circumstances, Miss Burnet and young Culbert managed to keep up their intimacy and to meet occasionally. Finally, the young lady found it difficult to conceal the affair, and between anxiety on the one hand and true love on the other, she managed to work herself into a severe illness. After some time she imparted the secret to her physician, who in turn informed the parents, who, as might be expected, tried to disabuse the girl of her notion, but to no purpose. As to a marriage with Culbert they would not listen to such a thing. The upshot was that within a few weeks since, Miss Annie surreptitiously left home, and in company with her lover, drove off to Montclair, where they were indissolubly tied in the bonds of holy matrimony by the Rev. Mr. I. L. Maxwell.

The sequel to this romance in real life is the best of all. The indignant parents were at first disposed to give the young people the cold shoulder, but finding that William was really far above his former position and about to take a responsible situation in a Newark dry goods house, they relented, and now perfect harmony reigns in the Burnet and Culbert domestic circles.

The Ecumenical Council—A Stormy Scene.

The Roman correspondent of the Cologne Gazette, says:

Bishop Strossmayer observed that it is unreasonable to describe Protestantism as the source of atheism, pantheism, and materialism, seeing that many eminent Protestants, such as Leibnitz and Guizot, have combated these doctrines. Here the bishop was forced to stop by loud protests from all parts of the Council, but he went on when the clamor had ceased. There are many sincere people, he said, among the Protestants of France, England, America, Germany, and his own diocese, who err bona fide. This raised another storm, which was only appeased by the intervention of Cardinal Capalti. But when the bishop began to touch on the question whether the dogmas should be passed by a majority of votes, or only, as in former Councils, when all the members were unanimous, the Council lost all patience. Cries of "Hæreticus! hæreticus!" and "Damnamus eum!" were heard on all sides. One bishop exclaimed: "At ego non damno eum!" upon which the others repeated, "Damnamus!" and shouted to the speaker: "Tu es protestans! taceas! ab ambone descendas!" Ultimately, Bishop Strossmayer was compelled to leave the tribune without finishing his speech. The noise was so great that it was heard in the ante-rooms, and the bishop's military servant drew his sword and endeavored to force his way into the Council Chamber to defend his master.

KOSKOO!

THE GREAT REPUTATION

Which KOSKOO has attained in all parts of country

AS A GREAT AND GOOD MEDICINE

And the Large Numbers of Testimonials

which are constantly being received from Physicians, and persons who have BEEN CURED by its use, is CONCLUSIVE PROOF of its REMARKABLE VALUE.

AS A BLOOD PURIFIER,

IT HAS NO EQUAL,

BEING POSITIVELY

The Most Powerful Vegetable Alterative Yet Discovered.

DISEASES OF THE BLOOD;

"The life of the flesh is in the Blood," is a Scriptural maxim that science proves to be true. The people talk of bad blood, as the cause of many diseases, and like many popular opinions, this of bad blood is founded in truth.

The symptoms of bad blood are usually quite plain—bad Digestion—causes imperfect nutrition, and consequently the circulation is feeble, the soft tissues loose their tone and elasticity, and the tongue becomes pale, bread, and frequently covered with a pasty, white coat. This condition soon shows itself in roughness of the skin, then in ERUPTIVE and ULCERATIVE diseases, and when long continued, results in serious lesions of the Brain, Liver, Lungs, or urinary apparatus. Much, very much, suffering is caused by impure blood. It is estimated by some that one-fifth of the human family are effected with scrofula in some form.

When the Blood is pure, you are not so liable to any disease. Many impurities of the Blood arise from impure diseases of large cities. Eradicate every impurity from the fountain of life, and good spirits, fair skin and vital strength will return to you.

KOSKOO,

AS A

Liver Invigorator!

STANDS UNRIVALLED.

Being the only KNOWN Medicine

that EFFICIENTLY stimulates and CORRECTS the hepatic secretions and functional DERANGEMENTS of the LIVER, WITHOUT DEBILITATING the system. While it acts freely upon the Liver instead of copious purging, it gradually changes the discharges to a perfectly natural state.

SYMPTOMS OF LIVER COMPLAINT AND OF SOME OF THOSE DISEASES PRODUCED BY IT.

A sallow or yellow color of the skin, or yellowish-brown spots on the face and other parts of the body; dullness and drowsiness, sometimes, headache; bitter or bad taste in the mouth, internal heat; in many cases a dry, teasing cough; unsteady appetite; sometimes sour stomach, with a raising of the food; a bloated or full feeling about the stomach and sides; aggravating pains in the side, back, or breast, and about the shoulders; constipation of the bowels; piles, flatulence, coldness of the extremities, etc.

KOSKOO!

Is a remedy of Wonderful Efficacy in the cure of diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder. In these Affections it is as near a specific as any remedy can be. It does its work kindly, silently, and surely. The Relief which it affords is both certain and perceptible.

DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER.

Persons unacquainted with the structure and functions of the Kidneys can not estimate the importance of their healing action.

Regular and sufficient action of the Kidneys is as important, nay, even more so, than regularity of the bowels. The Kidneys remove from the Blood those effete matters which, if permitted to remain, would speedily destroy life. A total suspension of the urinary discharges will occasion death from thirty-six to forty-eight hours.

When the Urine is voided in small quantities at the time, or when there is a disposition to Urinate more frequently than natural, or when the Urine is high colored or scalding with weakness in the small of the back, it should not be trifled with or delayed, but Koskoo should be taken at once to remedy the difficulty, before a lesion of the organs takes place. Most of the diseases of the Bladder originate from those of the Kidneys, the Urine being imperfectly secreted in the Kidneys, prove irritating to the Bladder and Urinary passages. When we recollect that medicine never reaches the Kidneys through the general circulation of the Blood, we see how necessary it is to keep the Fountain of Life Pure.

KOSKOO!

Meets with GREAT SUCCESS in the CURE of

DISEASES OF THE NERVOUS SYSTEM,

Almost nine-tenths of our people suffer from nervous exhaustion, and are, therefore, liable to its concomitant evils of mental depression, confused ideas, softening of the brain, insanity, and complete breaking down of the general health. Thousands are suffering to-day with broken-down nervous systems, and, unfortunately, tobacco, alcohol, late hours, over-work (mental and physical), are causing diseases of the nervous system to increase at a fearful rate.

The symptoms to which diseases of the nervous system give rise, may be stated as follows:

A dull, heavy feeling in the head, sometimes more or less severe pain or headache; Periodical Headache, Dizziness, Noises or Ringing in the Head; Confusion of Ideas; Temporary Loss of Memory; Dejection of Spirits; Starting during Sleep; Bad Dreams; Hesitation in Answering Questions; Dullness of Hearing; Twitching of the Face and Arms, etc., which, if not promptly treated, lead to Paralysis, Delirium, Insanity, Impotency, Apoplexy, etc., etc.
